Cowboys Doc is Dusty

Cowboy's Doc is Dusty (Simon) is the most talented, versatile, and sweetest Quarter Horse for Western Pleasure, roping, and trail you will ever find. Simon is a horse that takes care of you, no matter what you want to do. He can be ridden by anybody of any age and ability and go from a 4-year-old child to an expert-level roper. He can be ridden daily or left to the field for months and will pick up exactly where he left off. Owned and overseen by Susan Armstrong, with training by lead trainer, Andrew Burke, Simon is an incredibly well-trained 15.2H, 8-year-old Red Roan, Quarter Horse. Simon is as calm as they get. We call him the emotional support Simon as he helps other horses and riders find confidence. He is the most loving Quarter Horse we have ever had the pleasure of working with. He is in your pocket, and you can trust him to the moon. He has a very soft mouth and takes almost no pressure to get him to respond to the reign. He both neck reigns and direct reigns. He listens to your seat very well and moves off your leg with ease. He rides Western Pleasure, English Pleasure, Trail, and Roping. He heads, he heels, and he is a great break-away horse. He is a fantastic cow horse. Simon's inclusive nature makes him a terrific companion for kids or adults alike and he is quite comfortable in the arena, on the trail, or working on the ranch. He wears shoes due to our hard ground and he stands for the farrier. He will stand quietly when tied and you can leave him tied all day. He loves to be groomed and relishes the affection of others. He brings balance to a herd and is the best horse for welcoming other horses. You will never find a better Quarter Horse than Simon.
