Description

Teeney

Teeny is an awesome athletic little pony for her size. She's almost 5 years old, 10h tall and cute as a button. She's not for a tiny beginner who doesn't have any knowledge of riding unless you're in a contained area or leadline. She does have a throttle when asked. She's a fancy little broke thing with a lot of buttons and would be awesome for a ranchy kid, our kids are just too big for her. She's been tracking the dummy and heeling it for 30 days and is ready to go on with. Handy enough that she will go thru playday events as well. Rides outside, good with cows, etc.

Her only flaw is she's still a little standoffish on the ground. I think when she finally has her own person and some consistency, it'll make a huge difference vs my kids trading off constantly with her.

She's the perfect already well going project for a ranchy type kid and she's budget friendly! Feel free to contact us for more information: Rocking Lazy S Ranch @ Rlsrboarding@gmail.com or 830-203-0787
