Cinnamon

Cinnamon is an 8 year old, bay molly mule that stands 15.1 Hands. Cinnamon is a very gentle, people loving mule broke for most anyone. She has a good handle and would make a great competition mule or a good all around trail mule. I let friend use her in the Colorado mountains last fall on their elk hunt. She packed out meat and the antlers and did very well. She's easy to catch, shoe, loads good and backs out of the trailer. Cinnamon was started and trained by my brother David. She has been ridden extensively in he Ozark national forest. Experienced mountain mule Been used on cattle. Soft in the mouth and works off of legs. Takes both leads. A real show stopper!
