Nebraska is a drop dead GORGEOUS, 7-year-old, Palomino and white gelding that stands 15.2 hands. He is thick and stout, with big bone and big feet, wearing a #3 shoe! This guy has the color and conformation to stand out in the crowd as well as the most loving disposition that will instantly make him the barn favorite. Nebraska has been in our family since he was a yearling and lived on our family farm as my mom's personal trail horse until this past fall. Since then, we have continued riding Nebraska extensively on the trail, checking cattle, and teaching him lots of new tricks! He is a highly intelligent, sweet, and personable horse that genuinely wants to be with you and in-your-pocket. His quiet and willing demeanor makes him a pleasure to be around. Nebraska has a super smooth gait and can be ridden everywhere BRIDLELESS! He will neck rein one-handed, side pass, very soft mouth, responds to leg pressure, and backs up with ease. He will lope both leads on command and has the softest lope you can imagine. Nebraska has been trained to come when called and follow you around running with no halter or lead rope. He will side pass up to anything for mounting with just the snap of your fingers. He lays down on command from the ground or from the saddle! He is used to guns, dogs, bullwhips, cattle, flags, wagons and traffic. He is great on the trail and will tackle any trail obstacle with ease. Nebraska is easy to catch anywhere, quiet in the barn, and stands tied quietly. He will willingly pick up all four feet and is great for the farrier, grooming, and bathing. He is good in the pasture alone and gets along great with other horses, as well. He loads and unloads in the trailer with no issues. Nebraska truly is a sweet loving horse that is so willing to do whatever you ask of him. He is fancy and flashy enough to make a super lady's horse but is stout enough to carry any gentleman. Nebraska is that once-in-a-lifetime kind of horse that you will not find every day.
