Description

BENNY THE JET RODRIGUEZ

Benny the Jet Rodriguez aka "Benny" is every little cowboy or cowgirls dream pony. Standing 12.2 makes him a pony your buckaroo can enjoy for years to come. This pony has seen it all. He can keep with the big horses and go all day, big boned and travels out nicely. Benny has roped and drug calves to the fire at brandings, doctored calves in the pasture. He's been stared on a cutting horse flag and will track a hot heels all day long. He's got a big stop that's smooth, circles nice, and will turn around. Easy to load and will let anyone pickup his feet and be a gentleman about it. Benny has more of a horse personality, easy to teach and picks up things quickly. He is a true joy to ride.
