Description

HELLFIRENLIMESTONE

Royal in pedigree, ability, looks, and temperament – Dolly is a once in a lifetime queen. Exceptionally trainable, Dolly has smooth transitions, pretty turn arounds, fluent lead changes and an effortless stop. She's a beautiful dappled palomino with a flowing mane and tail that completes her celebrity appearance. Dolly has so much athletic ability, things just come easily for her. The showing possibilities for Dolly are endless, she's NRBC enrolled, is eligible to be registered with APHA, and you can take her to the Palomino shows. She is ready to go excel in the roping, reining, ranch horse classes, or just enjoy pleasure riding down the trails. Blessed with the mentality of an aged horse and a kind temperament, Dolly would do very well in the rope horse futurities and is eligible to compete in the Royal Crown Incentive. Extremely laid back, Dolly is more whoa than go and cruises around beautifully on a draped rein. Classy and sensible, she's ready for whatever the day brings, whether it's in the arena or on the trails. Confident when ridden outside, Dolly is enjoyable alone or in a group. She's unfailingly ladylike around other horses and never marish or silly. She's seen the sights of town, four-wheelers, tractors, tarps – her quiet gentle nature is unbothered by all the silliness. Because everyone needs some fun tricks – Dolly knows how to play ball and will happily carry a flag. She'd be an amazing horse for a queen. Dolly's talent comes from both sides of her stellar pedigree. She's by million-dollar sire INFERNO SIXTY SIX, who had lifetime earnings of $208,782 in the NRHA and was a Top 10 NRHA sire in 2021. Her dam is by BLACK LITTLE LENA, who won $85,811 at NCHA events. Her superior pedigree is apparent in her perfect conformation, she's big boned, deep bodied, and very correctly put together. She stands a versatile 14.3, and weighs 1200 lbs. Bred and built for excellence, Dolly will make a stellar addition to any farm's broodmare band. Dolly loves attention of any kind, she'll meet you at the gate for the day's adventure. She has perfect manners for the farrier, enjoys baths, and is easy to clip. She'll hop in the trailer and stand quietly waiting for you. Dolly quickly settles into new environments. Sound and sane, Dolly has been a joy to own. Please call Estevan at 505-450-5519 to chat about her anytime. We're confident you'll love her like we do.
