Description

GUNNANIC

Iceman is absolutely the kindest, most versatile, horse you'll ever find. As his name suggests, he doesn't get riled up about anything. He's extremely laid back and stays quiet after a lengthy vacation. He's been part of our family for over two years, as a 3-year-old, he was trustworthy enough for our 12-year-old son to take elk hunting in the rugged Pecos Wilderness. Iceman is confident being ridden out alone or in a group. He will surefootedly pick his way through any sort of terrain. Ready to go, Iceman rides very soft in the face, is responsive to leg pressure and loves to stop. He has an attractive natural headset, very pretty trot, rocking horse lope and plenty of run. Go enjoy him in the roping arena, show pen, out on the trails, or put him to work on the ranch. He's a quick study when learning new skills and tries hard to please his rider.

Iceman's easy-going temperament makes him very adaptable for a variety of riders, he's handy enough for a top hand, and kindhearted enough to be trusted to build a novice rider's confidence. Iceman's athletic ability, temperament and correct confirmation is the result of his fabulous genetics. He's by GUNNER ON ICE, World Champion and National Champion Sire. Out of a daughter of the late great SMART CHIC OLENA, who had lifetime earnings of $167,472 is in the AQHA Hall of Fame and is an All-Time Leading Sire of NRHA, NRCHA and AQHA Reining, Cow Horse and Ranch Horse Money & Point Earners. Iceman stands a user friendly 14.3H and weighs 1100 lbs. Very correctly put together, he's built for longevity in any career you choose with heavy bone structure. Iceman has great ground manners and enjoys people. He has the personality of a puppy dog and always happy to go on new adventures. He's a quiet around other horses, has lived turned out with a herd and is also happy to go in his stall. He settles into new places quickly. Easy to haul, bathe, and shoe – he's always a gentleman. We've greatly enjoyed the opportunity to own Iceman the last few years. We would love to introduce you to him before the sale. We're confident you'll love him like we do! Call Estevan at 505-450-5519 to chat about him or set up an appointment.
