Description

LIL

Lil is an 11 yr. old, 15.0 hand, 1207 lb., gorgeous mare mule. She is an easy keeper and stays fat on air, so to speak. Her conformation is correct, she has good bone structure, great muscle tone & the softest, kindest eye. She is a flashy girl to ride or drive around. You will be sure to get noticed on her. She is finished on driving, riding and packing. She has been living with her brother, JP, her whole life. They are full siblings out of the same paint mare and jack. At home or when traveling, they are easy to handle. They catch, stand tied, eat & drink good, are well behaved, load, haul, and make owning them a breeze. Lil & JP have been driven all over the country and have been hooked to forecarts, pleasure wagons, buggies, farm implements and more. They have been driven in multiple parades, on long overnight wagon rides, and also have been used to haul guests on the ranch. No flashing lights, noisy music, or people jumping on & off your wagon will rattle them. They always hold their composure in the toughest of settings. They really shine, even in a 3 up setting, when we put a green mule in the middle of them. They hold their ground like big oak trees. As far as her riding goes, Lil is a good, steady mount. She is a bit of a lazy girl, but will move out upon a strong urging. She is great on the trails, trudging thru bogs, briars, and deadfall. It is no problem aboard her. She will lead the way or is happy to ride in the middle or back of the group. We have used her here on the ranch for all types of tasks, both riding & driving. She is willing to ride out alone without any other equine along. We have lead her in a pack string and used her to lead a pack string. She and JP would be ideal to switch and use either way. With all her assets, any buyer would be getting a real bargain and a sweet equine friend for life. She is a darling. Please feel free to come to the ranch here in Texas and ride her, prior to us leaving for Utah. We have great places to try her on the trails, obstacles and an arena, too. We will arrive a little early in Utah, so prospective buyers can ask to try her before the sale, on the trails near Tropic during Bryce Canyon Mule Days. If you would like more info, pics or videos, call Jennifer at 501-213-8594.
