BREED - Missouri Foxtrotter

Kirt is an 8-year-old, 15.3 hand, Palomino grade Missouri Fokxtrotter gelding weighing 1250 pounds. He is STOUT with big bone! We purchased Kirt from his breeder who also did a nice job training him. He was used as a trail companion and lead horse to train other horses to pull a wagon. Since we have owned Kirt, he has become a trail horse deluxe and traffic safe! He neck reins, side passes, opens and closes gates and has a great smooth gait. He is good with guns, bullwhips, dogs, mules, good with a rope and will drag anything from the horn. Kirt is broke to pull a wagon single or double! He will laydown on command and side pass up to mounting block for easy mounting. He is easy to catch in the stall or in the pasture, ground ties, broke to hobbles, and stands quietly when tied. Kirt can be ridden BRIDLELESS! He is super gentle and loves people! Safe for beginner rider! He would make a great mountain and ranch horse.
