Description

CHICS MAGIC LENA

CHICS MAGIC LENA aka Magic is a once in a lifetime type of horse. He has all the talent, athleticism, and looks! He's smart, kind and gentle for anyone and everyone. Standing 14.3 hands, with a mane and tail that are to die for, he is a looker! Whether you're looking to rope, show, or pleasure ride, this is the gelding for you. He's been shown in the cowhorse, used on both ends in the team roping, ridden through every terrain you could imagine on the trails and has all the makings to go in whatever direction you ask of him. He's been our go-to gelding for the last 7 years and never ceases to amaze us! From doctoring cattle to showing to late nights at the jackpot, he will give you everything he's got and then some. He's the first to meet you at the gate, stands quiet by himself at the trailer and never loses his composure under pressure! Magic is gentle enough for a beginner rider but will do his job when an advanced rider hops on. Magic has very correct spins, a big stop, and easy lead changes and transitions. Magic would make an excellent ranch versatility show horse. He completes every maneuver with ease, has a ton of cow and is so much fun to take down the fence! He will cross any obstacle you point him to, including water! If that's not your thing, take him and rope on him, hit the trails or just love on him at the barn. He will be happy to do anything, as long as he's with you! He's 100% safe, sound and sane in every way. He has no vices or bad habits! When you look Magic's breeding, there's no doubt he was bred to be great. His legendary sire, CHICS MAGIC POTION, was one of the highest-earning reined cow horses of all time with earnings himself of over $318,000 and was inducted into the NRCHA Hall of Fame in 2016. This incredible gelding is truly the real deal and you won't find a single thing not to love about him when you meet him! For more information call (214)-497-0227.
