Description

Meet HOLLYWOOD TOWN, or as we call him, Hollywood—the leading man of the horse world. With his dashing good looks, golden coat, and a personality as warm as a campfire, Hollywood steals hearts faster than a cowboy tips his hat. Hollywood is more than just a pretty face—he's the total package. For over three years, he's been part of our family, proving himself in every role from the bright lights of town to wide-open cattle pastures. Whether you're after a steady trail partner or a flashy show prospect, Hollywood's got the skills to match his star power. His ground-covering trot feels like a Cadillac on cruise control, and his rocking-horse lope is the stuff of cowboy dreams. Spins, lead changes, and fancy moves? He makes them look easy. Whether you want to show, rope, or ride bareback through the trails, Hollywood is your guy. In the roping pen, he's a natural—scoring, rating, and facing with confidence—all brought along slow and steady. On the trails, Hollywood is surefooted and steady through any terrain, from rocky mountains to desert sands. He's as reliable as a favorite pair of boots, whether working gates at a branding, navigating trail courses, or just cruising along. Born with the wisdom of an aged horse, Hollywood doesn't need daily rides to stay gentle—he's always the same easygoing partner you can count on. Bred for greatness, Hollywood is sired by $3 Million Dollar sire HOLLYWOODTINSELTOWN and out of a proven daughter of COLONELS SMOKING GUN (Gunner), the #1 All-Time Reining Sire and NRHA Hall of Famer. His pedigree ensures he's not just talented but also incredibly trainable, making him suitable for all levels of riders. At 15.1 hands and weighing 1,200 lbs, Hollywood is built to last. His correct conformation, solid bone, and dappled palomino coat make him as functional as he is fancy. With big, soft eyes that reflect his kindhearted soul, he's the type of horse Breyer models are based on—the one everybody wishes they had in their barn. We've loved every minute with Hollywood and are proud to offer him to someone who will appreciate his talent, heart, and charm as much as we do. Call Estevan at 505-450-5519 anytime to chat about this once-in-a-lifetime horse or come spend some time with him at our place before the sale.
