Description

This eye catching, classy molly mule who resides in the heartland of Iowa is a stocking legged beauty we all call Gypsy. This 14.3 hand, nine year old is out of a correct black and white quarter mare. She has extensive training under her belt. She crosses logs, creeks, rocks and dead fall with a sure foot. Adapts well to different ages and levels of riders. Walks away from the group with confidence. Has a calm walk and a slow lope that can be done in the shade of an apple tree. Gypsy will side pass over to the gate, go through a trail course, pull logs and much more while being bridless. She has packed supplies and also lead many pack mules on the trails of the Shawnee National Forest, Superstition Mountains and the bluffs of Missouri and Iowa. There has been many adventurous trips to the National Championship Chuckwagon races in Clinton Arkansas. We have lead many colts from her and drug many logs to clear the trails.

Gypsy has been one of our main mounts for the previous four years. She is what every farrier loves to work with. If your looking for a confident, brilliant mule who will work off your leg, one hand neck rein, tie to a high line, bathe, clip, bridle or ground tie. Then you have found a gem we call Gypsy.
