Description

Shadoka aka UnsurpAssed is a very youthful 2008 model quarter type molly mule. She is as beautiful and conformationally correct as a mule can be. Standing at a stout 14.3 hands, she is a very easy keeper, has no metabolic issues and she is sound in every way. Her only vice would be an addiction to soft round peppermints. Shadoka was the Champion Quarter Type Molly Halter Mule at Bishop Mule Days in 2022 where she also won 2nd in Ranch Pleasure, 4th in Western Dressage and was Top 10 in several other events. She was also the Reserve Champion All Around Open Mule at the 2022 Fort Worth Stock Show. But she's not just a fancy broke show mule! Shadoka is a fantastic trail mule going easily through water and over any obstacle in her path. She spent the entire 2019 hunting season packing with Timberline Lodge and Big Country Outfitters in the mountains of Wyoming. They begged to use her again the following season due to her versatility. Shadoka always meets you at the gate and brays when she sees you coming. She is excellent for the farrier, easy to clip, good with her ears, ties well, rides bareback and is easy to bridle and saddle. She doesn't need shoes under normal use. Her current rider is a 67 year old woman with bad knees and a bad back, so she is trained to come pick you up off the fence, trailer fender, step stool, etc. She is a wonderfully smooth ride at all gaits and this gal really walks out, covering lots of ground on the trail. Due to her perfect conformation she holds a saddle well with no need for a crupper or britchen. We use her to pony young horses and she lives with, and kindly puts manners on, our young stud colts (but her naturally beautiful long tail sometimes suffers). Her trainer is Dr. Kelly Riccitelli who has shown several mules to World & Reserve World Championships in Halter, Jumping, Reining, and Driving Events. kelly.riccitelli@ttu.edu or 979-324-3215 for more information or to come test ride Shadoka before the sale!
